

Photo: © cambrianleisurehomes.co.uk

LEISURE PARK FOCUS

A LEISURELY BREAK

The village of Llanbedrogch in eastern Anglesey is a popular coastal destination, and those in the know have homes at Ty Newydd Leisure Park. Set within four acres and with views over Snowdon and the surrounding countryside, as well as easy access to picturesque Benllech Bay and the nearby coastal walks and nature reserves, the park is perfectly situated for lovers of the great outdoors.

The lodges provide comfortable accommodation and there's an indoor and an outdoor swimming pool, a children's play area, a restaurant and a bar. Dogs are allowed to join you, too, which is great with so many lovely walks nearby. Second homes don't come much more idyllic than this.
Ty Newydd Leisure Park,
Llanbedrogch, Isle of Anglesey
LL76 8TZ. Tel: 01248 450677.
www.tynewydd.com

TOP WEBSITE

WWW.CYCLETOURER.CO.UK

While you're feeling at one with nature, why not go the whole hog and leave the car at home when you go on holiday? Embarking on a cycling road trip will give you a greater taste of the wild and you'll be helping the environment, too. This website has plenty of advice to show you how to pedal in the right direction. It's run by a husband and wife who are both keen cyclists, and the couple draw upon their own bike touring experiences to provide useful tips on everything from what to take to where to go.

CAMPING KITBAG

STAY SAFE

Part of the attraction of the great outdoors is that it's wild, but that also means there are risks – so it's worth being prepared. Tuck this handy sized first aid kit into your backpack and you'll be helping yourself and the Air Ambulance, to whom the proceeds go. Inside are dressings, bandages, tape, gloves and plasters – everything you'll need to fix any cuts and scrapes. This kit is especially valuable if you have children with you.

Universal Small Kit, £7.73.
Yorkshire Air Ambulance.
Tel: 01422 237900.
www.yorkshireairambulance.org.uk

BOOK REVIEW

FAMILY FOODIES

Cooking fast, easy meals using limited resources that the whole family will enjoy can be a bit of an ordeal. That's why the Family Camping Cookbook has been speedily packed into kitbags since being published with a sigh of relief by harassed parents who love camping along the Welsh coast and beyond. The book is written by camping connoisseurs Tiff and Jim Easton, who, with three children of their own, have plenty of experience of placating tired, hungry children with quickly prepared delicious meals.

The Family Camping Cookbook contains beautiful colour photographs throughout its easy-to-understand chapters, which cover cooking by the beach, cooking in the country and party food, among other things. There are 85 easy and appetising recipes designed around cooking on a gas stove, barbecue or open fire. Campers of all ages will find this book indispensable.
Family Camping Cookbook, Tiff and Jim Easton. RRP: £10.99.
ISBN: 978-1848990081. Duncan Baird Publishers. www.dbp.co.uk

